

Tehya is a friendly and dedicated medical clinic receptionist who brings a warm, welcoming presence to her work. Originally from the small town of Coteau in South Louisiana, she now resides in Longview, Texas, where she enjoys helping patients feel at ease and ensuring the smooth flow of daily operations at the clinic.

Tehya is known for her excellent organizational skills and her ability to make patients feel comfortable during their visits.

Outside of work, Tehya is a proud mother of two beautiful girls, and she cherishes every moment spent with them. Whether it's playing, learning, or simply enjoying each other's company, her two girls are at the center of her work.

Tehya is also engaged to her fiancé, a firefighter in Marshall, Texas, who she supports in his courageous work.

When she is not at the clinic or with her family, Tehya enjoys taking time for herself but is always happiest when she's surrounded by her loved ones.
